

PBL FOCUS WEEK

5 AND 6

POLITE

WHAT IS THE FOCUS

- LI: Students will understand how to show respect to others by listening when they are speaking.
- SC: Students will be able to identify how they can show respect to others by listening when they are speaking.
- SC: listening, respect

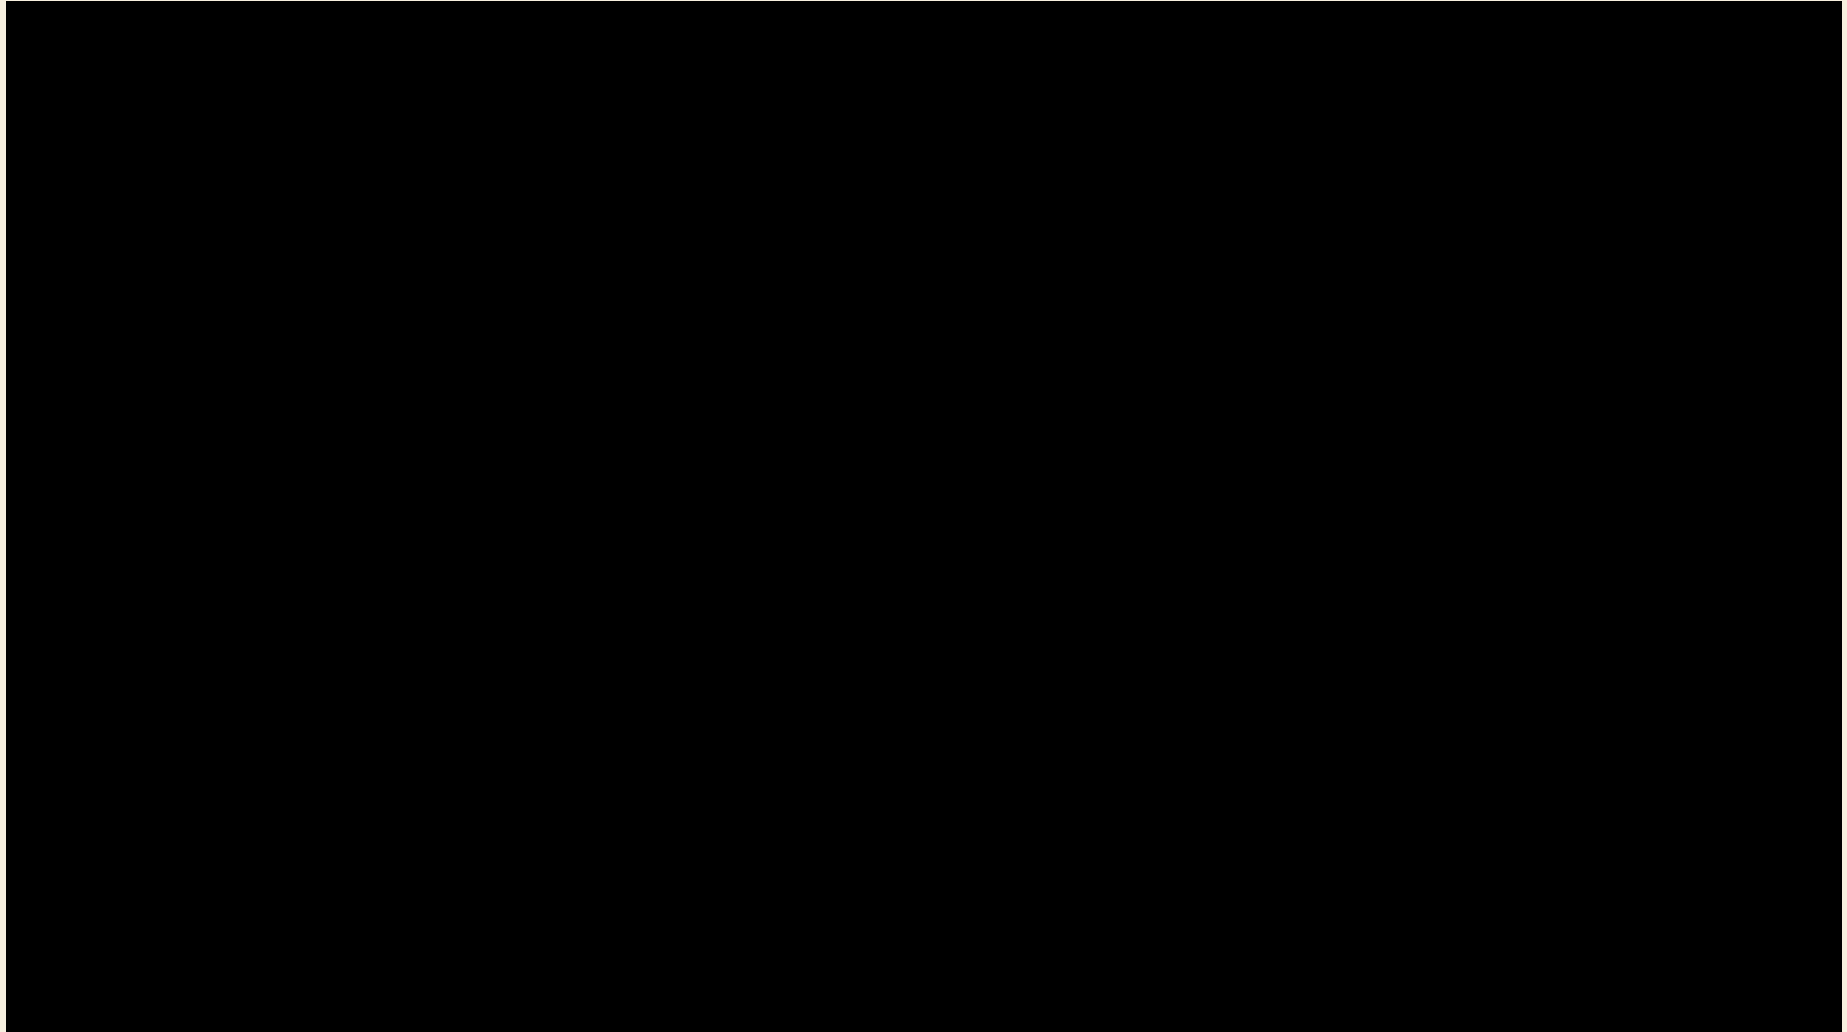

WHY IS THE FOCUS IMPORTANT

- Showing respect to others while they are speaking is extremely important.
- In class, students should be polite and show respect to their peers by not interrupting while they speak.
- In class students should be polite and show respect by listening and not talking while the teacher is talking.
- On parade students should be polite and listen while the teacher is talking.
- At work you should not talk while your employer is giving you an important instruction.
